W.P.(C). 29187/2007

Dated this the 3rd day of October, 2007

JUDGMENT

The petitioner who claims to be the legally wedded wife of Venu, the fifth respondent, who is a store keeper in Indian Army, is aggrieved by the fact that the request made by her husband, fifth respondent, to change the name of the nominee for family pension, as sought for by her husband, has not been considered by the respondents. Apparently petitioner's husband himself had made such request which was directed to be considered by this Court under Ext.P4 judgment. There is no reason why a decision, as sought for by the petitioner's husband, has not been taken by this time.

2. Having heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and learned Standing Counsel for the respondents, the writ petition is disposed of directing the second respondent to take a decision on Ext.P5, keeping in mind Ext.P4 judgment and the request made by the fifth respondent which led to Ext.P4 judgment, within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.
